

When Milady buys her hat she realizes that it is one article of apparel, particularly in the Fall and Winter seasons, that must bear every evidence of distinction. Her hat must "set her off" from commonplace.

In the choice of a hat, individuality is the keynote and the woman of today with her exquisite taste for artistic beauty, as well as her common sense ideas of economy, "wants what she wants when she wants it" and nothing but the latest style and high quality in millinery fills the bill. And it seems that every hat framed by the designers has been made with that idea in view, which is conclusively illustrated in the millinery establishments of Ogden.

Every woman ought to be pleased, and she surely will be if she visits the hat shops, with this season's creations. This Fall is really the first season since the war that women's hats form such a dominant part of their outfits and for that reason special pains have been taken by the designers to put forth superb styles and elegantly arranged colorations. It really seems that the designers actually dreamed of the 1920 creations and were precisely directed by their imaginations so well suited to the occasion. In the millinery of the Ogden shops there is found a beautiful blending of colors, sensible shapes, together with exquisite trimmings and economic makeup which carries high quality and good values.

Wright's

Extravagant claims cannot convince you that this Millinery Department is an exceptionally good one. Only your own inspection of our hats, your own good judgment as to the styles, will make you a patron of this department—or not.

It will be of interest to you to know, however, that the hats for this millinery store are selected every day, not twice a year. Scarcely a day passes that the expressman does not bring a large package of fresh millinery.

The smart fall styles that you see here today will doubtless be replaced with others tomorrow, so quickly do the season's best modes come and go. We especially like to have women come to the department just to look.

Hats For The Older Girls

Models particularly suitable for going away to college or for school wear.

Culley Says:

When the doctor has decided what is wrong with his patient; when he is determined just what drugs may be needed to help overcome and throw off the ailment; when he has written his "prescription" setting forth just what drugs he wants and how much—then the druggist enters the equation to "help the doctor win." The conscientious pharmacist sees that the doctor's orders are followed to the smallest fraction of a grain. He sees to it that each ingredient of the prescription is of the purity, freshness and strength which the doctor had in mind when he wrote his prescription.

BOHEMIAN LIFE OF ARTISTS IS FILMED IN 'THE PRINCE CHAP'

William DeMille Ransacks His Friends' Studios to Provide "Atmosphere"

Most of the action in William DeMille's production, "The Prince Chap," which will be on view at the Alhambra theatre tonight took place in the bohemian colony of struggling artists in the Soho section of London. Several studios are shown and to provide the most realistic furnishings for them, Mr. DeMille made full use of his ex-satisfy the most exacting theatre goer especially so since Mr. Clair is so particular as to presenting only clean, wholesome comedy, interpolated with snappy, jazzy, popular musical numbers and pretty girls galore.

Florence Clair, Gladys Vail, Blanche Barker, Frank Jaquet, Robert Grant, Jack Romig and Howard Barrow form the clever supporting cast of Hiram. The excellent trio of male voices with the company will no doubt prove just as popular here as they have in every city where the Clair company has played during these past three years.

remely wide acquaintance among artists.

"I dipped ruthlessly into every studio I could find," explained the producer, "picking up a little water color here and an oil study there, if commandeered brass tea-kettles, pilfered prize chinaware, took without compunction the valued hangings from walls and windows, and even shamelessly entered wardrobes and requisitioned comfortable well worn coats, caps, and smocks."

The result is that each studio in "The Prince Chap" is a perfect gem of "artful artlessness" that is aimed to reflect accurately the character of the person who occupies it. Thomas Meighan is the featured player in this appealing comedy, and Lila Lee, Kathryn Williams, Theodore Kosloff, and Ann Forrest are also in the cast. It is a Paramount Artcraft release.

MUSICAL COMEDY COMING TO ORPHEUM

Manager Goss is to be congratulated on having secured an attraction for the Orpheum, "The Roy Hiram" Clair. Revue of Revues which opens at that popular theatre on Sunday night September 12, for a run of four days. Mr. Goss has arranged with the comedian to play in conjunction with his big feature comedy pictures "Married Life." The Clair company will play two bills during their Ogden engagement, one "Hiram The Wise Guy" on Sunday and Monday nights and "Hiram Butted In" on Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

Hiram is the famous comedian who has just closed a ten week's season in Salt Lake City where he gained an enviable reputation both as a comedian and man. He comes to the Orpheum with a car load of special futuristic scenery, dazzling array of pretty girls gowned in costumes equally dazzling a company of twenty-five comedians, singers and dancers all specialists in their particular line. It can be safely said that the Clair company will furnish a brand of entertainment that will
